

Introduction:

Foundation in TESL (PI020/ E0150) or Asasi TESL prepares you for entry into relevant degree programmes in Universiti Teknologi MARA (UiTM) or other public universities (UA). The credits you receive in this full time two semesters program, allows you to make the critical transition from studying English as a subject towards studying for a degree in TESL. You will undergo the unique interdisciplinary learning experience, focusing on the main components of English – Reading, Writing, Listening & Speaking and Grammar as well as introductory courses in Literature and Drama. This distinctive learning experience will expand your intellectual curiosity, all the while improving and practicing the language-based skills required for success in a Malaysian university.

Why Join Us?

The Asasi TESL Program in UITM has received great demand from SPM (or O-level) leavers as a preferred preparatory course. Every year more than 7000 applications are received and the graduates of Asasi TESL are sought after by other Malaysia established Universities.
